

PARISTER HOTEL IN PARIS !

I have a new fav Hotel in Paris since last week on my list and its the new insider tipp for you and your next Trip to Paris! MY fav new Hotel in Paris is near the opera and new in the streets its the hotel PARISTER PARIS ! When I was there I feel like very cozy and home in my Junior suite and I promise you have a great sleep there ! The breakfast is really amazing too you will have great fresh coffee, eggs, fruits, bread, suits and a lot of things which you need for a good start in the day ! The pool and the fitness room are open for you 24 hours what I really love, because in a lot hotels you can not visit the pool or fitness rooms 24 hours but when you have a lot of work every day sometimes you need the pool at midnight :) more infos about the hotel you can see it on the website CLICK for the HOTEL ad/anzeige
